

Glasmann Decisions Newey In Wasatch Club Feature

MAIN EVENT ADDS KICK TO WEEKLY MIT FRACAS; LATTIMER WINS EASILY

Glasmann Loses First Round to Newey But Comes Back Like Cyclone in Closing Sessions, Piling Up a Tremendous Lead; Other Events Prove Very Tame

BILL GLASMANN of Ogden and Red Newey furnished the mit fans with six rounds of good boxing at the Wasatch Athletic club last night after the preceding events had been about as kickless as a bean bag game in a seminary. The Glasmann-Newey battle removed the glooms and had the entire crowd on their toes.

Two of the judges gave the battle to Glasmann, while the third called it a draw. The third chap drew the line awfully fine as Glasmann completely outclassed Newey in the final five rounds of the mit with his peppery attack of body punches and blows to the jaw.

Glasmann at his best is a better boy than Newey. He is cleverer, shifter and hits harder. Bill used all of these features to advantage last night.

NEWY TAKES FIRST

In the opening round Newey showed to his best advantage. During this time he managed to slip over several lefts to Bill's jaw and face, two of the blows finding resting places which resulted in two nifty little "go-ros" for Glasmann. Glasmann feinted with his left on several occasions in the early part of the first round. In the final minute of this round he battled Newey toe to toe.

GLASMANN A TIGER

In the third round Glasmann came out of his corner like a fighting tiger and tore into Newey. Three attempted lefts found their target. Newey coming back and landing two rights to the body. Glasmann placed a right to the pit of Newey's stomach and followed with a right cross to the jaw as they clinched. They exchanged blows freely at infighting. A smashing right to Newey's stomach landed at the bell.

Glasmann opened the fourth round by driving Newey to the ropes with two lefts to the jaw. Newey countermanded the attack with a right to the jaw and a left to the kidneys. Newey landed a clean uppercut, the best blow of his entire assortment, only to find Glasmann wading in like a tiger. Glasmann counted four successive lefts to the jaw and followed with a smashing right to the stomach. He landed another right to the jaw at the bell.

The fifth round saw both men giving and taking. Two smashing lefts by Glasmann found their resting places. Newey went into a shell and in coming out landed two lefts to the body. The two men clinched at the center of the ring, exchanging body punches. Newey landed two clean

PIRATES WILL TROT OUT IN CHANGED LINEUP

HOME FANS WILL HAVE DIFFICULTY IN RECOGNIZING TEAM

Catcher Schmidt's Absence May Weaken Buccaneer Machine

By NEA Service.

Fans may have some difficulty in recognizing the Pittsburgh Pirates when they trot out on the field for the opening game of the 1932 season in the National league.

Manager George Gibson has his buccaner candidates down here working out, and it is evident already that some rather startling changes will be noticeable in the lineup this summer.

Gibson has got rid of several veterans, and one other old standby is still a holdout, with the chances favorable to his remaining on the outside.

George Cutshaw and George Whitte have been released. Darryl Reardon has not signed and probably will not do so.

Walter Schmidt, the only veteran catcher on the list, has an unusually stubborn fit and has refused point blank to accept the terms of $5,000 offered him.

The Schmidt situation means that Gibson is going to depend entirely on young catchers this season. He is grooming John Goetz, Birmingham product, for the bulk of the work behind the bat, and seems to be satisfied that the youngster will be equal to the demands made upon him.

As his first assistant Goetz will doubtless have Clarence Joward, who came to Pittsburgh from Nashville, and who looks like another find.

Only one position on the Pirate infield still in doubt is the third base. Grimm will again be at first and Maranville at short. Traynor will play second base.

Traynor is a recruit from Birmingham of the Southern league. He is a shortstop, but has no chance to break in at that position with Maranville on the same club.

Traynor is regarded as one of the best looking young infielders in the country. Manager Gibson is confident he will be able to adapt himself to second.

It now looks as if third base would be played by either Jewell Ens, with Syracuse last season, or Claude Rohwer, a California collegian with no professional experience.

One very important shift has been made in the outfield. Max Carey will move over to left field. He originally played that position, but because of his ground covering ability was shifted to center.

Carson Bigbee, who played left field last year, will hold down center. Bigbee is at the zenith of his career, a great outfielder. Gibson feels the shift will prolong Carey's career.

Ray Rohwer looks like a certainty for right field. He is a brother of the youngster who has a chance to break in at third. Rohwer was carried by the club last year. He is a left-handed hitter and thrower and is very fast.

Gibson will have a pitching staff of youngsters and veterans. The bulk of the work will be done by Cooper, Adams, Glazner, Hamilton and Carlson. In reserve he will have Morrison and Yellow Horse.

The Pirates without Schmidt do not look as strong as last year.

STAN ZBYSZKO AND LAYTINEN GO DRAW

FRENCH BASEBALL GROUPS ORGANIZED

PARIS, April 1.—The French Baseball federation, or "La Federation Francaise de Baseball," as the natives will know it, came into being this month in the club rooms of the American legion in Paris, whose walls are covered with trophies of the great war in which Americans and French fought side by side.

There are already three all-French baseball teams in France, one in Paris, known as the Ranelagh baseball club, another at Roubaix and a third at Tourcoing. The Ranelagh team, which has been playing for three seasons, last year competed in a contest between the half dozen clubs formed of Americans in Paris attached to the American banks here, the Graves registration, and other similar organizations. While the Frenchmen did not head the list at the end of the season, they were not the last on it, a noteworthy achievement when it is remembered they played against experienced American players. This year, thanks to the Federation Francaise de Baseball which has just been founded, clubs will compete for the championship of a real French league, and the honor of being the first champions will be keenly fought for.

MANAGER FOHL HAS FEW WORRIES LEFT

(By NEA Service.) MOBILE, Ala., April 1.—Manager Lee Fohl of the Browns has no worries as to his catching or outfield.

The catching staff will consist of his trio of regulars of last year, Hank Severid, Pat Collins and Josh Billings.

Two youngsters, Arthur Watkins and John Heying, are trying for a berth, but will probably be sent back to the minors for more experience.

Manager Fohl is confident that Pat Collins has arrived with a vengeance. He intends to use him a great deal this summer to help out Severid who for years has carried the burden.

The outfield will be Ken Williams in left, Jacobson in center and Johnny Tobin in right. Chick Shorten, secured from Detroit, will play utility role.

BOXER COLLAPSES AFTER HARD FIGHT

EUGENE, Ore., April 1.—Injuries which physicians say may prove fatal were suffered by George Teislie of Brownsville, Ore., in a boxing bout here Friday. Teislie lost on a technical knockout in the seventh round of a bout with Carl Miller of Eugene. He clattered with friends and laughed after the contest but 15 minutes later showed indications of what the physicians assert probably is a broken blood vessel in his head.

GIANTS EXPECT TO REPEAT IN NATIONAL CONFIDENCE OF ONE CHAMPIONSHIP MAY BRING ANOTHER

Unlimited Supply of Cash and Willingness to Spend It Get Results

By NEA Service. John McGraw expects to win another pennant in 1932 with his New York Giants.

Hughy Jennings, who assists McGraw in directing the destinies of the Giants, is equally certain they will repeat.

"I have a better club than last year," is the terse manner in which McGraw sums up his chances.

"A strengthened ball club, plus the confidence that goes with winning a world's championship, insures another pennant," is the dope Hughy Jennings offers.

McGraw is certainly entitled to be called the "go-getter" of baseball. Winning pennants is his specialty. He just naturally goes and gets them. Quick to realize when his team is slipping, McGraw doesn't wait until the crash, rather he prepares for it. Backed by an unlimited supply of cash, —one never stops him when he is satisfied some player will supply the required strength.

Only one position on the ball team the pennant last year, also the world's series, McGraw brought the biggest squad south of any of the major league clubs.

HERE ARE REASONS

Here are some of the reasons McGraw advances for his opinion that the Giants will repeat in the National league.

"I have the best infield in either league in Kelly, Frisch, Bancroft and Groh, in Johnny Rawlings I have the best utility infielder in the National league.

"In Snyder and Smith I have two experienced catchers. They are capable of alternating if I so desire. Some clubs may have one man who stands out more prominently, but no club boasts of two catchers as good as Smith and Snyder.

"My pitching will be up to the standard. Douglas, Seaf, Barnes and Toney are regulars. Bill Ryan and Pat Shea are about due. Virgil Barnes looks ready for the big show. "George Burns will be missed for a time at least. In Shinniers and Cunningham I have two youngsters certain to develop into stars.

"Meusel will be in left and Young in right, with either Cunningham or Shinniers in center. At the present time Shinniers has the call. He looks like a real star.

"I figure the Giants to win because my club unquestionably stands out as the class of the league.

"If the Giants fail I will be willing to take all the blame."

On paper McGraw's team certainly stands out as the class of the league.

The big IF with the Giants is the pitching.

Will Phil Douglas observe training rules throughout the season? Unquestionably Toney slipping? His form in the world's series made it seem so.

WAS THE REMARKABLE SHOWING OF JESSE BARNES AGAINST THE YANKEES A MERCE FISH?

A lot of National league players are inclined to that opinion. Unquestionably McGraw's only problem is pitching.

FOUR GOOD RECRUITS

Out of the 20 recruits taken south, John McGraw of the New York Giants feels that four of them will help win another pennant.

The four recruits who have already made good are Ralph Shinniers, cured from Indianapolis; Clarence Barnes from the Southern league; all Barnes from Milwaukee; and win Hale direct from the University of Mississippi.

Shinniers in all probability will be in the field in place of Groh. His hitting is a doubtful quantity.

Barnes is having his third year with the Giants. He seems to be settling in. He is a brother of the hero of the world's series. Hale has many of the faults of a collegian ball player. However, his remarkable ability and speed are a star in a year or two.

Ike Boone, who led his association in hitting last year, chance of being retained as a hitter.
